THUNDERDOME

LAWYERS ENTER LEADERS EMERGE

CLASS 9 PARTICIPANT APPLICATION

Curriculum and schedule will be announced soon.

The Legal Aid Foundation of Tallahassee announces Class 9 of Thunderdome Tallahassee, a free hands-on legal group training program to provide education, camaraderie, networking, leadership and recognition to a new generation of lawyers serving the community. Thunderdome Tallahassee prepares a diverse group of lawyers for trial, community service, and involvement at a leadership level. Lawyers of all ages, practice backgrounds, and experience levels are encouraged to apply.

THUNDERDOME TALLAHASSEE: THE STORY

The Legal Aid Foundation of Tallahassee (LAF) estimates over 2,300 low-income families in Leon County need help in family law each year, once facing a 3-4 month wait for a volunteer lawyer. This is a major unmet need threatening home, family, and livelihood. Thunderdome Tallahassee addresses this gaping need for equal access to the law, while supporting volunteer lawyers with the best in legal education and leadership development.

The original Thunderdome concept was offered to us by clinics in Chicago and Connecticut recommended as best practices by the ABA. Taking it to the next level, LAF and university, legal, judicial, and community leaders enhanced the model with in-depth education, mentoring, and leadership
